

Friends of Beverley Art Gallery

...why not get involved

friends of beverley art gallery

In 2014 the gallery was renovated and systems updated.

Beverley can now pay host to visiting exhibitions of the highest standard, as well as showcase our existing Champney collection and paintings by Fred and Mary Elwell.

Invitations to previews and special events

As a Friend you will have the opportunity to view behind the scenes and volunteer your help at previews and special events.

Visits to other galleries

The committee organise visits of interest and welcome suggestions from members.

10% Discount in the café

Why not stop off at the café for some light refreshment when you visit the gallery?

By joining the Friends you will help the Gallery to:

- Purchase new items.
- Restore and conserve paintings and frames.
- Encourage new artists and developments.
- Promote the Gallery in the community

Thank you for joining the Friends of Beverley Art Gallery and welcome!

As Friends we show our support for the Curators and staff at the Gallery in many ways. Funds raised through membership subscription, donations and events support a variety of projects and contribute towards the conservation of paintings and their frames. The funds have also helped purchase additions to the collection. As well as housing the wonderful Champney collection of paintings and works by Fred and Mary Elwell, the Gallery encourages new artists and ideas with exhibitions and displays. Our aim is to encourage more people to enjoy Art in all its forms.

Friends are kept informed of events and previews and invited to join outings several times a year. A newsletter will be sent by email or posted if you prefer. Also members are given a 10% discount at the Gallery Café.

The elegant red-bricked, copper - roofed building which houses the Beverley Library, Treasure House and Art Gallery is appropriately situated on Champney Road, named after the Victorian philanthropist whose wealth and vision created the building.
